

REMEMBERING
Diane Laurensen

February 16, 1956 - February 5, 2020

Diane Yvonne Marie Laurensen, born February 16, 1956 in Sudbury, Ontario, passed away at home February 5th at age 63 after a valiant 3 and a half year battle with mesothelioma. She will be lovingly remembered by her husband and best friend of 43 years, Gary, her daughter Kirsten (Kieran Adams) and her son Jared (Jenny), brothers Richard, Noel (Phyllis), and Jack (Sharon), nieces Candice and Kyla and nephew, Dustin. She was predeceased by her parents, John and Germaine Philippon, and her brother, Patrick.

Diane grew up all across Canada and met Gary in Vancouver and subsequently moved to Penticton to raise their family. In Penticton, they ran their own business until retiring 5 years ago. Diane loved being a Mother and making a home. Her gardens were always a wonder and a source of great pride. She enjoyed traveling and most recently explored Ireland. Diane loved the outdoors, hiking, camping, boating, skiing and also photography.

A funeral service took place Tuesday, February 11 at 1:00 pm at Christ the King Catholic Church in Oliver with interment at the Oliver Municipal Cemetery. A reception followed at the Church.

A special thank you to the National Institute of Health in Bethesda Maryland for their dedication to finding a cure for Mesothelioma.
